

Our Trauma 101 training provides psychoeducation on What is Trauma, types of traumas, the impacts of trauma and so much more. Created by trauma-informed practitioners along with people who have survived traumas, our training was created for your audience. We understand generational and life traumas and our training highlight the time we have taken in understanding how to cope.